

1. what problem does Salesforce solve?

Ans: Salesforce solves customer relation management and inefficiency of customers satisfaction like providing service all the time.

→ Salesforce designs a cloud based platforms i.e., software that gives companies a clear view of their customers to build deeper relationships.

→ Salesforce solves

- * centralizing customer data

- * Improving customer support

- * Aligning teams

(sales, marketing, services)

- * Data insights and reporting

2, what is CRM?
ans: CRM is customer relationship management.

* By interacting with customers frequently, getting a hold of customer's interests, solving their problems, providing services.

* In simple words satisfying the customer and maintaining good relation with them is CRM.

3, what is an object in salesforce?
give one example.

ans: An object is just being a digital representation of a real thing.

* object in salesforce is a database table used to store data.

Example: Account object

→ stores customer of company information

→ used for account based marketing.

4. Difference between salesforce admin and developer?

Ans: * A salesforce admin is a person who manages and configures the salesforce CRM system for an organization.

* Admin makes sure that salesforce works properly for users without doing much coding.

* A salesforce developer is a person who knows how to build solutions and softwares for enterprises problems using software technologies.

5. Suggest one real-world application that can be built using salesforce.

Ans: e-commerce customer support system.

objects are - cart, payment, shipment, Review, invoice.
customer object